A word from Yudetamago:

Akimoto-sensei, congratulations for the 30th anniversary of KochiKame!! We first met 26 years ago when we stayed a night at a hotel at the foot of Mt. Fuji for the taking of the "all serialized authors" group picture. In the midst of the banquet, the two of us, who were newcomers, called out to you with "Nice to meet you. Want to play cards?" In the midst of the game, you lectured us on the preparedness of being a mangaka and the way to do work. That day, what you did to "us great poor people" will be remembered for the rest of our lives.
